

October 15, 1973

Mr. Secretary:

I concerted with Dave Popper on the question of the Security Council resolution. Attached is a revision of the draft which is in your Strategy Book. Note the reference to withdrawal.

I can develop other variants if and when you need them.

DOS REVIEWED 27-Dec-2010: NO OBJECTION TO DECLASSIFICATION

Joseph J. Sisco - NEA

REFER TO DOS

SECRET

October 15, 1973

The Security Council,

Gravely concerned over the continuing hostilities
in the Middle East,

Conscious of its primary responsibility under the Charter for the maintenance of international peace and security,

1. Calls upon the parties engaged in conflict as a first step immediately to cease fire and discontinue all hostilities.

2. Calls upon the parties, without delay, to begin discussions under the aegis of the Secretary General, with a view to the attainment at an early date of agreement on a peaceful settlement in accordance with all the provisions of its Resolution 242, including withdrawal of forces envisaged by that resolution.
